

Become a Host Family for a State Department Fellow!

American Councils for International Education is looking for temporary host families for young professionals (ages 25-35) under the auspices of the State Departments Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs.

This federally-funded fellowship program targets emerging leaders who are pursuing careers in both the public and private sectors.

Program Facts:

- Hosting commitment: Oct. 12 - Nov. 13, 2018
- Fellows work with local, state and federal legislatures/government offices, NGOs, academic institutions and other organizations across the country.
- During the program, Fellows live in home stays and are supported by American Councils staff.
- Fellows receive a roundtrip ticket from their home country, medical insurance, a modest stipend, and an allowance for public transportation.
- Upon their return home, Fellows administer projects and conduct workshops in cooperation with the U.S. Embassy and U.S. counterparts.
- For more information about the program, visit: <http://professionalfellows.americancouncils.org>

Host Family Requirements:

- Able to provide room and board (separate room for fellow).
- Interest in intercultural exchange.
- Accessibility to public transportation, proximity to work, or another situation for transportation to work.

Submit a host family application at:
<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/Fall2018>
FamilyApplication

For more information, contact:
Jaimie Holmes
jholmes@americancouncils.org